Guiteau's Admirer. N. Y. Tribune

Illinois is grievously afflicted. It unfortunate enough to contain the birthplace of Guiteau, and to have an editor who openly rejoices in Guiteau's crime. Guiteau was born in Freeport, and his admirer edits a newspaper in Quincy. On August 11 he published this astounding observation: "We believe Guiteau to be just as honorable as the man he shot, and a mighty sight less dangerous to the country at large than that plausible, smooth-tongued, unprincipled man."
When this fieudish observation created excitement in the community, H. N. Wheeler, the editor, repeated it with the additional offensive remark that when Garfield died there would be no national sorrow. He has continued to make similar observations since, and to defend them at great The citizens of the town have burned him in effigy side by side with

laven's Effervescent California Fruit

Is prepared from sound, ripe fruit, by an experienced analytical chemist, who has spent years in experimenting on its preparation. It is manufactured by a special process known only to the proprietor. This preparation is a safe, simple and effectual medicine for regulating the action of the stomach liver and kidneys. It is most particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Nausea, Sea Sickness, Kidney and Liver froubles, Over-indulgence either in esting or drinking, etc. As a purifier of the blood in all Scrofulous Diseases, it has no equal. It removes all eruptions from the skin, and has a cooling and invigorating effect out he system. The FRUIT SALT is entirely different from any of the effervescent Salts or Sedilitz preparations in the market, being manufactured from Fruit. Will'am J Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with RLEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough, I lost my appetite and fleeh, and was confined to my bed, In 1877 I was admitted to the Hespital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE. LUNGS. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past. I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness.

Prof. Walter's End.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Investigation showed that the remains were those of Prof. Louis Walter, an humble manufacturer of pyrotechnics, St. Louis. The Professor got very drunk yesterday, and became convinced that the Presidential calamity would ruin the pyrotechnic business, and worked himself into such a state of melancholy as rendered life not worth seeing to the end. He went down to the dyke, lay down put a charge of dynamite on his breast, and touched it off. It went off, and he with it.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thir milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. ### CAUSE FOR JOY !

Private dispatches say that the Presdent's improvement, since his arrival at Long Branch, is truly miraculous. He was very tired last night, and his pulse went to 129, but it is now believed that all will be well.

MANIFESTATIONS.

People of limited or irregular education fail to appreciate the inflexible line that unites cause and effect. They of course, could not be convinced that two and two, under any circumstances, would make seven, but with the factors further involved and the changes intricately removed they often find it necessary to explain phenomena by attributing them to the supernatural. Humanity is very much inclined to make a religion out of everything it does not understand. The savage sees God in storms, and hears Him in the wind. His better educated brother, through long ages of study, in which he has solve d one problem of nature after another, and has found his religious ground gradually growing smaller and smaller until he has come to make very little allowance for supernatural interference in temporal affairs, but expects to realize all his religious hopes after death. Spiritualism attempts to dethey offer as proof all sorts of things not easily understood or explained, and by working on the feelings and friends, have built up a good paying business. Very few "tricks of the trade" now remain unexposed, and aland by self deception in the victims. It is easy for a nervous or weak mindtain states of mental excitement and sition by means of an engine. hysteria that they feel little hands on their cheeks or little lips on theirs, and it is very easy for a sleight of hand performer to do miraculous tricks. It is probable that there are forces in na-

SPOOKS OR SLEIGHT OF HAND?

THE MANIFESTATIONS AT THE THEATRE LAST EVENING.

Dr. Dawson Interrupts the Flow o Magnetism by Being Too Inquisitive-The Committee Report No Spirits Present.

A great deal of interest was awakened here by "taking" advertisements scattered through the town announcevening, at the Nevada Theatre, give a lecture on spiritualistic power, and that he would be assisted by the greatest of living mediums. The people were assured that "a table raises four to five feet and floats in mid-air.

SPIRIT HANDS AND FACES Are plainly seen and recognized by their friends; a guitar is played and passed around the room by the invisible power; flowers are brought and passed to the audience by hands plainly seen; bells are rung, harps are played, and other tests of a startling nature take place in presence of these three wonderful mediums. A large piano rises clear from the floor and is played upon without a living soul touching it; and many spirit forms outspoken in the belief that that appear upon the open stagesometimes eight or ten at a time-are proof positive of the genuineness of these mediums." All these things were supposed to happen in a fully lighted theatre, and were to prove that the dead do return. Added to the judicious advertising done was the inducement of a cheap admission fee, which always seems to catch Reno. When the curtain rose a large and very attentive audience was in the house. Mr. Braddon introduced the entertainment with a very good talk, the purport of which was that there are three different beliefs in regard to the phenomencalled spiritualism. One is that it is supernatural and genuine-that is, that the dead do return and rattle pans, tie people with ropes, knock on tables and such like heavenly performances. The second, that there are forces in nature that certain people control without knowing just how, and that in certain nervous conditions these forces produce certain results of a trifling and somewhat uncertain nature; and the third, that the whole is slight of hand, magic or jugglery. Mr. Braddon stated that in reality the show and well worth seeing. star of their troupe, Miss Annie Eva Fay held the middle ground, but she allowed everyone their own opinion. He called upon the audience to send up two men out of their number to EXAMINE THE STAGE

And also a baize covered cabinet about eight feet in height, breadth and depth that stood in the center of the stage. Some one shouted Col. Lindsay and some one else Dr. Dawson, and the two gentlemen were unanipronounced everything or the square. Miss Annie Eva Fay then stepped out and was tied by the two judges with a band of cotton cloth on each wrist and the two wrists were tied behind her. Mr. Braddon then tied a second band through the others, and when she seated herself in a chair in the cabinet the judges tied her fast to an iron ring in an upright stanchion behind her. Why Mr. Braddon did not allow the judges also to tie the band through the hands is little matter. The curtain was drawn in front of the cabinet with Miss Fay inside tied by the hands, by the neck and by the feet, and with musical instruments, etc., on her lap. As soon almost as the curtain was closed the sounds of the gnitar, harmonicon, etc., were heard. Then in rapid succession came the familiar displays so convincing to those who want to believe and so unimportant to every body else. The second part of the performance was IN FULL GAS LIGHT,

And it was conducted after this manner. A lady from the audience was requested to step up on the stage. Miss Fay was then seated on the left, turned about half toward the cabinet, but keeping her face squarely towards the audience all the time. Dr. Dawson sat in the middle and the lady on the Doctor's right. Mr. Braddon had drawn the curtain across the face of has this choice bit of news: "Last any movement of the lower part would their way to Reno, taking with them not create a wrinkle above the tacks. the celebrated race mare"Lulu Riggs," He then took a piece of brown stuff who will enter in the races of the com-the floor so as to conceal their entire persons excepting the face and head, Dr. Dawson had one hand on Miss Fay's knee and she had both her's on his, one lying on top of the other. The instruments inside began to play and quite a noise was kept up for a few minutes, but the demonstrations very suddenly ceased, and Miss Fay said she could do nothing without some one else took Dr. Dawson's place. H. L. Fish was called for by Miss Fay, and he was pinned in and the demonstrations continued. Dr. ing that C. C. Braddon would on last Dawson this morning explains the change. He says

HE IS CERTAIN That Miss Fay took her top hand off and slipping it in behind the screen, as she might easily do, made all the movement. It will be remembered that her body was not placed squarely towards the audience, and her person was entirely hid from view, and the covering was fastened so that any movement would not be seen. Dr. Dawson moved his hand a little and tried to turn it over to see if both her hands were there or only one, and instantly stopped the whole show. Mr Fish was interviewed this morning and thinks she did not move her hand but had an accomplice. He is very

SO FAR AS SUPERNATURAL POWERS go, none were shown. He says it was all jugglery and slight of hand. Several pieces of paper were written upon and one or two communications of thirty tons each will will be built here. As the party have been three without the aid of spirits. The rope of forty tons at Galena, thirty-six tying and untying of Mr. Braddon was first-class, and in fact the whole show as a show was exciting and interesting. Mr. Braddon indulged in a joke to close the performance. He was tied by the judges and shut in the is being constructed at Saw Tooth, cabinet. After some minutes silence he said he could not untie the knots, Salmon River. Altogether, the outand that he had been unfairly tied. He asked the gentlemen to untie him be very dull this winter. It was all the regular business, and can be done by any performer of dexterity. No piano or tables moved, no spirits came on the stage. Still it was a good

Athletic Club.

At the regular meeting of the Rend Athletic Club, held last evening, the resignation from the club of Mr. Chas, Fassett was received on account of his departure for other fields of usefulness. Feeling that we had lost in him an earnest and active member a unanamous vote of thanks was tendered him for his valuable services to the club ever since the day of the organimously elected. They stepped up on zation, and the Secretary was ordered the stage and examined the cabinet, to convey the same to him at the was also offered that whereas Dr. Rozas has voluntarily and kindly given the club his knowledge and skill in the science of sword exercise, that he be elected an honorary member of the club.

Cure for Blackleg.

Cattle men inform us, says the Silver State, that no calves or yearlings which they have been driving are affected by the disease known as "blackleg." This led some of them to drive the diseased cattle pretty lively for a few hours, for the purpose of getting advertised to be done by the medium the blood to circulate freely, and the result has been highly satisfactory. They say exercise is a specific for the disease, and that unless calves are in a dying condition, it will cure them. The GAZETTE is also informed that in Old Nevadan in Wood River Tells and Outlook.

A private letter from Joe Woodworth furnishes the GAZETTE with the following Wood River news, under date of September 3d: Have just returned from a trip all

There are some splendid-looking prospects up that way, and I think another year will see quite an excitement up there. We are in the midst of an election campaign here, for the county seat. Four candidates in the fieldto-wit: Hailey, Bellevue, Ketchum and Rocky Bar, the present county seat. Rocky Bar is about one hundred miles from Hailey, in the western part of the county, while Bellevue is five miles below, and Ketchum twelve miles above. From the present outlook, the fight lies between Hailey and Rocky Bar, with the chances in favor of Hailey. The mines are developing fully as well as I expected when I wrote last. The great trouble at present is to get teams to havl the ore and bullion to the railroads. There are some 300 tons at Hailey now awaiting shipment. Lumber is still $40 a M at the mills, notwithstanding there are seven running, turning out about 40,000 feet per day. Jee Douglass is building a little five-ton furnace near Bellevue. A ten-ton furnace is running at Hailey regularly, and two signed by people known to have died there this fall by an Eastern company, for the Bullion group of mines. One days in town, it would not have been with a capacity of thirty tons is being impossible to have got the names constructed at Ketchum, and another miles up the river, northwest from Hailey. There is a "Howland Pulverizer" mill about three and a half miles from Hailey, about ready to run on gold ore, and a twenty-stamp mill some fifty miles from Hailey, on the

MCCLELLAN'S MURDERER.

Pleading for Delay, and Complaining That He is Too Ill to be Examined.

Mr. Hi. McClellan arrived in Truckee Monday and will remain until after the examination of Isaac Tamkin. Mr. McClellan is the brother of H. J. McClellan who was killed. He is a resident of Milford, Lassen counthrough the Salmon River mountains. ty, and engaged in the milling business. Mr. McClellan is a highly respectable citizen and is deeply grieved at the cowardly manner in which his brother was murdered.

The Republican says: The examination of Isaac Tamkin, alias Longstreet, was commenced before Judge Dunster Tuesday. We are informed by Dr. Curless that he has greatly improved, but Longstreet seems to differ with the doctor as to his condition, and complains piteously that he will not be able to get out before two months. The authorities have determined to push the matter at once, and delay the examination no longer. District Attorney Gaylord has written to the effect that he considers the State justified in pushing matters with all speed. The prisoner puts on a very poor mouth, and complains that the people of Truckee are prejudiced against him without cause. Owing to the many rumors that an attempt would be made to rescue him, he was removed from his house (where he has been under the guard of a day and night watch since the shooting) and put into the branch county jail, Monday. He has figured in the police courts of Truckee having on one occasion been arrested months ago.

ANOTHER RAILROAD SCHEME.

General Hate't Again in the Field

A prospectus of the Nevada Pacific Railroad, connecting the narrow-gauge system east of the Sierra Nevada monntains, and forming a direct trunk line outlet to the sea, reads as follows:

The projectors of the Nevada Pacific d propose to construct and equip a first-class narrow-gauge railroad from a point on Suisun Bay at or near the mouth of the San Joaquin river, in California, to a point at or near Clover-dale, in Nye county, Nevada. THE PROPOSED ROUTE.

Leaving the beginning point on Suisun bay, the road will pass directly east through San Joaquin county to the foot-hills of the Sierra Nevada mountains; thence by the most direct practical route to the Big Tree Grove in Calaveras county; thence via Hermit valley to the summit of the mountains; thence down Wolf Creek (asbranch of the Carson river) to a point near Double Springs, in Douglas county, Nevada; thence via Walker river to the north end of Walker lake; thence via easterly to or near Cloverdale, Nye

The estimated length of trunk line of such road is 200 miles.

PROPOSED BRANCHES.

From a point eight miles north of Stockton, a branch connecting with that city is proposed.

It is also deemed advisable to construct a branch line northward from Hermit Valley to the south end of Lake Tahoe, distance of twenty miles. Other important branches are in contempla-

The main line of the road will conect pith the line of the Nevada Oregon narrow-gauge road at Walker Lake; also with the Nevada Southern at Cloverdale.

Vivacity has assumed a virulent form at this resort. We caught that from a pretty girl with a nose. Most girls have noses, but this one's is remarkable as the only quiet feature in her face. Around it play a kaleidoscopic confusion of eyes, mouth, teeth, dimples, brows and cheeks, grouping themselves into momentary expressions of mirth, wonder, doubt, sorrow, and so on, but so rapidly that she might reasonably be suspected of Sr. Vitus' dance. Talk about lively coun-Vitus dance. Talk about lively countenances! This one is beyond compare. Well, the theory gained belief that she was a charmingly vivacious girl. Then the rest of us began, in our comparatively weak way, to lift our eyebrows, wink onr eyes, purse our lips, wrinkle our cheeks, and generally contest our faces in converse. contort our faces in conversa-We are meeting with fair success, but there is one particular in which we do not hope to rival the Queen of Vivacity. In her moments of supremest effort she perceptibly waggles her ears. None of the rest of us can do that.

Every now and then Mr. Seth Green he veteran authority on fish culture and an ardent lover of the science of angling, is buttonholed and made to divulge some of the facts and incidents divulge some of the facts and incidents of his experience, and he always has something to say worth hearing. In one of his recent talks he seems to have settled a question which has vexed the temper of many a sportsman. In reply to the question whether or not genuine brook trout ever developed a weight beyond six pounds, Mr. Green said: "Yes sir, they do. I have seen a ten-pound genuine brook have seen a ten-pound genuine brook trout myself." The peculiar value of this decision lies in the extraordinary intimation that the ten-pounder was not caught by the judge. If Mr. Green had said: "I have myself captured," etc., it might be held that the question was still an open one.

That a remedy of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, etc., makes so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor. Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.
